Old Business:

2018 Wall Calendar Fundraiser:

2018 Wall Calendars need to sell. Ed Schapely is going to find out the schedule at Immaculate Church to see when we can set up a table outside to sell calendars.

Danielle Shekailo created a flyer to inform potential customers what the purpose of the fundraiser is and where to buy. Flyer was emailed to Tami McGeachy to be distributed throughout the senior citizen home; flyer was uploaded to Facebook Alliance page, on the Spotswood Municipal Home Page as well as the Spotswood PTA Facebook page and Spotswood PBA website.

Marcia Halbert sold two calendars and gave Dawn the money she collected.

As of February 1, 2018, calendars will be sold at the new price of $5 from its original $10.

County Alliance Paperwork

Fiscal Year 2019 as well as 2017/2018 1st and 2nd quarter County paperwork has been completed. Dawn received Resolution that was signed in earlier today by Borough Council. Dawn and Ed will drop off paperwork to Rhoulla tomorrow, Tuesday, January 23, 2018.

New Business:

Project Pride:

Project Pride was changed to Thursday, January 25, 2018 from its original date of January 4, 2018. Project Pride will be held at the SHS and Memorial Middle School. Starts between 8-8:30am.

Six trays of hot food, chips, sodas and desserts. Kids at high risk will join prisoners for lunch for a one-on-one discussion with supervision.

Spotswood School District Staff In-Service Presentation:

Doug Collier will be doing his Drug Trends Presentation to the entire Spotswood School District during their Staff In-Service on Friday, February 16, 2018.

Danielle Shekailo reached out to Melissa Hallerman and Courtney Williams from the PTA to get the food list they provided the Spotswood School District during their Convocation Breakfast back in September 2017. Danielle will be handling the food, drinks, and supplies for this presentation as well as a survey for all teachers and administration to complete at the end.

Other Business:

Emails needed for some of the Alliance members:

Laura DeSimone – intothematrix1995@gmail.com
Collene Wronko – collene035@hotmail.com

New Alliance Member:

Dawn introduced Victoria Halbert as our new alliance member. Everyone greeted Victoria and welcomed her to the Alliance.
